

WINTER COMES TO WINE COUNTRY

WINTER 2011-12

Soon snow will make Wine Country a winter wonderland, making it the perfect time to enjoy the quiet, serenity of a romantic B&B, a cozy meal just for two, or a visit to a beautiful, snowy setting at a Missouri winery.

We have everything you need to make your visit to Wine Country memorable. Our Winter in Wine Country Brochure sets out four tours featuring stops at Missouri's finest wineries winding up in Historic Washington for delicious food and charming Bed and Breakfasts or comfortable hotels. These tours cover the Augusta Wine Road and the Hermann Wine Trail. For a copy of the Winter in Wine Country Brochure, call 636 239-7575 or 636 239-2715, ext. 101.

Historic Downtown Washington offers great shopping in our unique shops and galleries. Gary Lucy Gallery, the Art Center, and the Art Gallery in the train station offer wonderful experience for the eye, and many may be purchased for your home or office, or for a great holiday gift.

Also, during these cold days how great would it be to stop in for a warm cup of coffee, hot chocolate or a delicious pastry. Mannwell's Coffee Alley and Joe's Deli offer just that. Round out your shopping with a stop at Main Street Gourmet, Addi's, Toni's Home Décor, IB Nuts, and of course, the Fudge Shoppe.

Finish off the day with a casual dinner or perhaps something more romantic at one of our fine restaurants; then off to a B&B or a hotel for a comfortable night's rest.

Washington, MO is the ultimate destination for a wonderful winter getaway. Come by car or enjoy a wonderful trip on Amtrak to Historic Washington, MO, the Heart of Missouri Wine Country. We are waiting for you and we look forward to making your experience a memorable one. Visit us at www.washmo.org.
